STAT

We continue to struggle with the HPSCI report on counterterrorism submitted for classification review just prior to your departure. took an interagency team to a meeting with HPSCI staff last week, but little was gained. We have learned from Livingston, Stump and staff that the report was approved by a bipartisan majority, but there may still be room for accommodation. In this connection, the Director today signed a letter to Hamilton asking that the report not be released until he and Hamilton have an opportunity to discuss it. Our objective is either to have the report classified or to have it issued in condensed form, focusing primarily on the Committee's recommendations.
